

Minister for Children/Youth and Reaching Out

Kanata United Church, located in the west end of Canada's capital region, is seeking to staff a half-time (20 hours per week) paid accountable ministry position for Children/Youth and Reaching Out (Designated Lay/ Diaconal/Ordained Ministry staff may apply). We are a welcoming, inclusive church with a thirst for exploration. We encourage questioning and openness while respecting individual values. We enjoy a first-class music program, dedicated lay leadership, extensive volunteer involvement and an excellent support staff team. KUC offers a strong commitment to outreach and pastoral care programs.

As our half-time Minister (as qualified through appropriate experience, education and discernment for this specified role as recognized by the United Church of Canada), your expertise and enthusiasm with regard to working with children and youth would help to support our renewed focus on Faith Development and Learning and provide leadership and vision for our congregational Reaching Out programs. Your collegial attitude and planning skills will help to build and support educational programs in cooperation with our new full-time Minister who will be joining KUC at the end of September.

To obtain a copy of our JNAC report, which outlines this position in more detail, or to forward your resume and statement of faith, or for inquiries, please contact our Corresponding Secretary, Robert Ashton, at ashton.robert@gmail.com

Applications will be accepted until August 3, 2010.
